

APPENDIX C

CITIZEN PHOTOS

Dave Neiger and Ann Bourne led this discussion of the program and passed out cameras for people to take pictures of their favorite Benzie County scenery. People were also asked to write a notation about each of their photographs and the location of the scene.

Those photos were used to help identify important scenic and natural resource locations in Benzie County. Several photographs were also used to help illustrate the Open Space and Natural Resource Protection Plan.